OFFICE OF THE POLICE COMMISSIONER.

Boston, Friday, April 25, 1919.

On account of the parade of the 26th (Yankee) Division, Overseas Expeditionary Forces, in this City today, the office of the Police Commissioner was closed.

OFFICE OF THE POLICE COMMISSIONER.
29 Pemberton square.

Boston, Saturday, April 26, 1919.

Police Commissioner Curtis was at his office today and transacted the following business:

The records of Thursday last were read and approved.

The Superintendent of Police was directed to promulgate the following to the Department by General Order:-

As Police Commissioner I extend my congratulations to the Police Force for the competent and efficient handling of the Parade of the 26th Division. The weeks of careful preparation had their full result in a very effective piece of police work. The people of Boston have been accustomed for many years to expect satisfactory performance of duty by their Police Force and it is to the credit of that Police Force that they take it as a matter of course that this parade should have been so well handled. Yet I deem it only due to the Force to say that in maintaining its high standard it merits the thanks of the community it serves.

To the Superintendent, whose thorough and painstaking preparation and untiring supervision made this commendation possible, I extend my congratulations, trusting that he feels, as I do, how much this success was due to his efforts.

To the Chief of the Bureau of Criminal Investigation and his corps, who took up work in addition to their usual duties, I extend my congratulations for their successful efforts in the protection of our citizens and visitors.

To the commanding Officers who so admirably carried out the instructions of the Superintendent, I also express my appreciation. And to the Patrolmen of the Force, who cheerfully and uncomplainingly endured the long hours of work and waiting, whether on the line of parade or elsewhere, after having undergone the burden of extra duty for some time before on account of the influx of visitors I extend my thanks.

I most gratefully recognize the splendidly efficient work of the officers and men of the Metropolitan Park Police Force whose invaluable assistance contributed in great measure to our success.
